

Unlocking Innovation

A Toolkit from London Business School

For managers and employees alike the idea of being innovative in the workplace can be unsettling: 'I'm not a very creative person', 'What if my ideas fail?', 'Innovation isn't in my job description!'

This resource-rich toolkit from London Business School can help you and your team with the difficult task of unlocking innovation within your own organisation.

Webinar

Watch and listen to John Dore in conversation with IEDP's Roddy Millar as he reveals his '5 keys to unlock innovation'

Learning tool

John Dore's '5 keys to unlock innovation' in quick-to-read format and with 'time to reflect' to embed your learning

Slide deck

Access and reference the PowerPoint slide deck from John Dore's webinar

Online resources

- London Business School Review
- Jules Goddard – Experiments in Management
- LBS's Institute of Innovation and Entrepreneurship

Reading list

- Ignore Everybody*, Hugh McCleod
- Little Bets*, Peter Sims
- The Failure Issue*, Harvard Business Review

Learn more about LBS

Discuss your organisation's learning needs with the LBS client solutions team:

-  clientsolutions@london.edu
-  +44 (0) 20 7000 7117